

NMIN 2022 POSTER COMPETITION

17-19 November 2022 | Toronto, ON | Omni King Edward Hotel

Abstract Submission Deadline: Monday 3 October 2022

The Poster Competition will take place during NMIN's 2022 Scientific Meeting, to be held at the Omni King Edward Hotel in Toronto, ON, 17-19 November 2022.

The Poster Competition is open to NMIN-funded trainees and members of the NMIN HQP Network (NHN) who are interested in presenting research findings related to NMIN's mission and mandate. Abstracts that present results with high commercial or clinical potential are strongly encouraged.

Poster Competition objectives:

- Increase the visibility of research pertinent to NMIN's mission and mandate
- Recognize excellence in NMIN HQP research
- Develop HQP skills in effective communication of research to scientific and non-scientific audiences (stakeholders, knowledge users)
- Promote collaboration and networking
- Provide a value-added professional development opportunity that facilitates career advancement in nanomedicines research

Prizes will be awarded for the top posters. All approved abstracts will be included in the virtual Abstract Book, made available to registered meeting participants.

Submission of abstracts

- 1) Abstracts must adhere to the NMIN Guidelines for Preparation of Abstracts. Submissions that do not follow the guidelines will be returned for revision or not accepted.
- 2) Abstracts must be edited and reviewed by the applicant's supervisor prior to submission. Authors are responsible for the quality of their abstracts and the accuracy of the terminology used.
- 3) Applicants may be required to edit their abstracts prior to acceptance and/or publication.
- 4) Abstracts and completed applications forms, signed by the applicant's supervisor, must be submitted by Monday 3 October 2022.
- 5) Abstracts and application forms must be submitted in separate files to the DropBox Submission Folder (here) following the file name template:

Acceptance of Abstracts

- 1) Abstracts will be reviewed for quality and relevance to NMIN's mission and mandate.
- 2) Abstract acceptance/rejection notices will be sent by email in mid to late October 2022.
- 3) If it becomes necessary to limit the number of poster entries, the NMIN Administrative Centre will exercise its discretion in accepting abstracts.
- 4) A poster can only be included in the competition if its author is a registered participant in the Scientific Meeting. If you submit an abstract, NMIN staff will be in contact with you about your registration options.

Protection of Intellectual Property

Your poster should not feature any unprotected intellectual property that has commercial potential. Accepted abstracts will be published in a virtual Abstract Book, made available to registered meeting participants.

If you have questions regarding intellectual property, contact your supervisor. If further assistance is required, please contact Leah Graystone, HQP and Events Coordinator, leahgraystone@nanomedicines.ca
