SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

NMIN Scientific Meeting & Trainee Symposium

NMIN's 2022 Scientific Meeting gathers the Network's pan-Canadian teams of experts, their partners, collaborators and other stakeholders to further advance the Network's innovative research and commercialization strategies. These efforts are geared toward the development, translation and clinical application of nanomedicine-based diagnostics and therapeutics to benefit patients, the national health research ecosystem, and the Canadian economy.

NMIN's 2022 Trainee Symposium offers capacity-building opportunities to the Network's talented pool of Highly Qualified Personnel (HQP), with a focus on imparting professional and personal skills, including soft skills, that complement their scientific training and promote their becoming well-rounded "industry-ready" professionals.

Invitation to sponsors

We invite organizations that share NMIN's belief in the revolutionary potential of nanomedicines, and that wish to help develop the next generation of Canadian nanomedicine researchers and entrepreneurs, to partner with us as event sponsors.

Please review the sponsorship opportunities and complete the Sponsorship Agreement, returning it by email to info@nanomedicines.ca. For further information, please contact:

Dr. Diana Royce, Executive Director, NMIN | dianaroyce@nanomedicines.ca

Funds raised through general sponsorship will be used to underwrite trainee and keynote speaker travel costs and support networking activities including a reception and meals. All amounts are in $CDN.
